

NEWS RELEASE

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

TODD P. GRAVES

Contact Don Ledford, Public Affairs • (816) 426-4220 • 400 East Ninth Street, Room 5510 • Kansas City, MO 64106

www.usdoj.gov/usao/mow

JUNE 29, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEE'S SUMMIT MAN SENTENCED FOR PRISON TAX REFUND SCHEME

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Lee's Summit, Mo., man was sentenced in federal court today for participating in a conspiracy that involved state prison inmates receiving income tax refunds by submitting false returns to the Internal Revenue Service.

Dusty A. McSparran, 30, of Lee's Summit, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Fernando J. Gaitan this morning to two years in federal prison without parole.

On April 18, 2005, McSparran pleaded guilty to participating in the conspiracy to defraud the United States by obtaining tax refunds for himself and other inmates between March 2001 and Oct. 31, 2002. McSparran also pleaded guilty to filing a false income tax return for himself and preparing and submitting a false income tax return for himself to the Internal Revenue Service.

As part of the conspiracy, Graves explained, the co-defendants in this case caused false returns to be filed by 85 participants, who received approximately $29,507 in tax refunds to which they were not entitled. While most participants did not receive refunds, Graves added, 27 participants actually received refunds ranging from $331 to $355.

McSparran is the fifth and final co-defendant to plead guilty and be sentenced in this case.

On April 8, 2005, John V. Frentzel, 41, of Columbia, Mo., was sentenced to three years and one month in federal prison without parole. On Dec. 17, 2005, Frentzel pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy. Frentzel also pleaded guilty to 27 separate instances, from Feb. 19, 2000, to April 28, 2001, in which he filed false income tax returns, as a result of which tax refunds were paid. Frentzel also pleaded guilty to 28 separate instances from March 30 to April 15, 2002, in which he prepared false income tax returns and sent them to an individual to submit to the Internal Revenue Service. No refunds were paid on those claims.

Frentzel and co-defendant Linden James Schuster, 44, of Lexington, Mo., recruited other inmates at the Moberly Correctional Center to file fraudulent federal income tax returns under their own names and Social Security numbers, charging them $100 to participate in the scheme. Schuster acted as the enforcer to collect the $100 from inmates participating in the scheme. Frentzel prepared false returns for himself and others using Forms 1040 EZ, falsely reporting more than $4,000 in wages and no withholdings, and claiming that each was entitled to an Earned Income Credit and tax refund.

Frentzel and Schuster mailed completed returns from the prison to unincarcerated co-conspirators and individuals, who then mailed them to the IRS Service Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Co-defendants Gary Sembler, 55, of Independence, Mo., and Russell D. Kilgore, 42, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., after being released from incarceration, provided assistance on the outside by allowing the use of their addresses on inmates' returns, mailing completed returns to the IRS, and receiving refund checks for inmates. Kilgore also allowed the use of his mother's address in Richmond, Mo., on inmates' returns and to receive refund checks for inmates. Sembler also cashed refund checks for inmates.

Schuster and Sembler were each sentenced on April 22, 2005. Schuster was sentenced to two years and six months in federal prison without parole, which the court ordered to run consecutive to his existing state sentence. Sembler was sentenced to one year and nine months in federal prison without parole.

On Feb. 8, 2005, Schuster pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy. Schuster also pleaded guilty to two specific occasions in which he filed false income tax returns, as a result of which tax refunds were paid, and one instance in which he prepared a false income tax return and sent it to an individual to submit to the Internal Revenue Service. No refund was paid on that claim.

On Feb. 8, 2005, Sembler pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy. Sembler also admitted that he presented false income tax returns for another individual to the Internal Revenue Service, as a result of which tax refunds were paid.

On June 3, 2005, Kilgore was sentenced to time served and placed on a three-year period of supervised release. On Jan. 28, 2005, Kilgore pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy and to two specific occasions in which he filed false income tax returns, as a result of which tax refunds were paid, and one instance in which he prepared a false income tax return and sent it to an individual to submit to the Internal Revenue Service. No refund was paid on that claim.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Linda Parker Marshall. It was investigated by the Internal Revenue Service.

This news release, as well as additional information about the office of the United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, is available on-line at www.usdoj.gov/usao/mow